

BAYER CROP SCIENCE 2025

University Mentoring Program

Building relationships, networks, and a commitment to soft skill development are essential to success as scientists and leaders.

Who should apply?

Curious scientists and engineers in early career stages

In fields related to plant breeding, plant biology, gene editing, crop physiology, chemistry, environmental science, engineering, computer science, & data science/engineering

Information Sessions

Jan 27, 2025 @ 3 PM CST

Teams Meeting ID:

363 014 225 737

Passcode: KxAibW

Applications

Apply by Feb 2, 2025 at:

B4U 2025 Mentee Application

PLUS: email your resume
(lastname_firstname_B4U25)
by Feb 2, 2025 to Dr. Uwe
Hilgert at: hilgert@bio5.org

Scan to apply

Selected applicants will be notified via email on February 17th 2025.

1 year mentoring program with established Bayer scientists

MENTORING

1-on-1, based on technical fit and soft skill development needs

DEVELOPMENT

Bayer-hosted workshops and seminars

NETWORKING

Within Bayer & across 20+ North American Universities

ADVANCEMENT

Career advancement advice

AWARENESS

Build business acumen and develop relationships with industry partner