

North of Speedway Photo Scavenger Hunt

1. "Enter the eye of the tie to find the sign of UofA pride."
2. "I once said, "Anything doing is worth overdoing"; look for me in the sun and see my smiling face looking west."
3. "I run endlessly yet do not move. Find my silver spout with my friend's names to know where I am."
4. "He sits still as stone in front of a museum, faces a heart as his words are recited every year."
5. "Only the ones who have the calling can hear her music play."
6. "I glitter alphabetically in the sun between two trees, as I greet you on your journey to and from the Health Sciences scene."
7. "I shimmer and soar in a tangled array, where light and shadows dance and play."
8. "In the space where I constantly run, I glow the beautiful color of sun. I move without feet, I speak without sound, I can crash or calmly surround."
9. "This grass is greenest a few stories off the ground."
10. "Don't try scrambling these eggs, they're best for when you need to rest."
11. "If you see or hear my watery approach, hurry before I float away."
12. "When you visit when I am home, you travel to seven places at once."
13. "Sit with me long enough, you'll experience all the seasons."
14. "A good place for art when you're in between meetings, see us in the home of the 'core 5' within Keating."

Timing is key - visit at the right time of day to find this clue.

Grab your phone and a few friends, and get MOVING! Among the north side of campus are unique landmarks and artwork. See how many clues you can decipher, and take a photo at the location with your fellow MOVERS! Submit photos to the Move Arizona site:

Need a hint, or want the answer? Email: UAHSEvents@arizona.edu